

Guilford Young College

in brief ... Dreams are coming true!

Suns choose Schade

North Hobart's Henry Schade sat his Year 12 Economics exam knowing he was an AFL footballer. Schade, 18, was taken as pick 24 by the Gold Coast Suns. The son of former Glenorchy premiership ruckman Steven, Henry is a 196cm, 80kg, key defender.

(from the Mercury, Friday 25 November)

Off to Melbourne

Glenorchy Campus VET student Kenneth Jimenez has been offered work at the prestigious Vue de Monde Group, in Melbourne. He will start work on Monday 19 December at Bistro Vue, on Little Collins Street.

He has also won the Outstanding Award for his VET course this year.